Ohio Rural Water Association is a nonprofit organization.

ORWA is a grassroots association providing technical, training, and legislative support, to the rural water and wastewater communities across Ohio. Your membership is a vital part of our effort to educate our membership and government officials of critical issues surrounding our industry. ORWA is an active participant in our legislative and regulatory process in Ohio and Nationally in DC. ORWA works with lobbyist in Ohio and DC, while also managing its own Ohio Rural Water Political Action Committee.

Application for membership and remittance of dues payment to ORWA indicates authorization from you for the Ohio Rural Water Association and Ohio Rural Water PAC to communicate industry relevant issues and solicit the directors and senior management employees (qualified restricted class) of your company as applicable for personal voluntary contributions to the PAC in accordance with all applicable state and federal laws.

If this authorization is not granted, please check this box to opt out:
